

God's Servant Betrayed: Gospel Hope for Unfaithful Disciples

Mark 14:43-52

1. Jesus' Betrayal Shouts His Innocence: (Mark 14:43-49)

- a. His innocence is seen in his unlawful arrest (Mark 14:43)
- b. His innocence is seen in Judas' treacherous identification (Mark 14:44-46)
- c. His innocence is seen by his incriminating question (Mark 14:48-49)

2. Jesus Betrayal Spotlights His "Disciples" Failure (Mark 14:47,50)

- a. Failure of Loyalty
- b. Failure of Violence
- c. Failure of Flight

3. Jesus Betrayal Foreshadows His Redemptive Power (Mark 14:51-52)

Mark presents himself as a portrait of the redemptive power of Christ's work to redeem and restore fallen disciples.

- a. Christ's Power To Take On His Unfaithful Disciples Shame and Nakedness

- b. Christ's Power To Give Unfaithful Disciples His Righteousness

- c. Christ's Power To Give Unfaithful Disciples a New Mission